Regents of the Undead Realm, the Game
	MOBA with a high fantasy styling (similar to League of Legends, DOTA).
1	PVP, teams of 5. Style is variable according to the hemisphere that each character is from (i.e. Western hemisphere is very tech-based, Eastern hemisphere is 1930s), but is stylized realism.
	Playable characters are named "Bonds" because of their aethereal connection to the actual real-life player.
	Teams are called "Bonded" and "Bound"; Bonds react to being placed on either side according to their natural alignment.
Coinhead, the Dreamseeking Marksman
